Center of Majorca

- Cycle through blooming meadows and enjoy the sunny spring time
- Live in a romantic finca far away from all the crowds in total harmony with nature
- Try some of Majorca’s excellent and internationally estimated wines along the so called “Majorcan wine route” Binissalem, Consell, Santa Maria del Camí, Santa Eugènia and Sencelles
- Visit cosy old villages, enjoy a typical Majorcan menu in one of the restaurants on the plaza and feel how time stands still during the siesta hours...
- Experience that special atmosphere on the 700 years old market of Sineu, definitely one of the most beautiful of the island!
- Pilgrimage to heavenly monasteries with romantic gardens and picture-book views over the island
- Admire nostalgic windmills, so called “molins” around Sa Pobla and Algaida
- Make a journey through time at “Els Calderers” in San Joan and see how Majorcan people used to live 200 years ago

North East Coast Majorca

- Take a walk through the dunes and natural parks of Punta de N’Amer, the Llevant peninsula or Cap Ferrutx and observe the amazing flora and fauna
- Make a time travel by visiting the lovely medieval market along the old castle of Capdepera where you can find all those jugglers, musicians and tradespeople from long ago
- Live in charming fincas where you can really find all of that picture-book Mediterranean flair
- Relax on secluded idyllic beaches with finest white sand surrounded by pine trees and dunes, some of which you can only reach by foot, so make sure you will find a lot of privacy and peace

- Enjoy a great selection of water sports like sailing, surfing, snorkeling, diving or water skiing
- Take advantage of some excellent golf courses like the ones in Canyamel, Capdepera, Son Servera or Pula
- Explore impressive stalagmites and stalactites and even a gorgeous underground sea in some of the famous caves near Portocristo and in the ones around Artá
